The Women's Empowerment Cell of St. Josephs Degree and PG College organised a "Cancer Awareness Programme" on 23 January 2014 at Joseph's Hall for all the girls from both PG and UG. The Awareness Program was conducted by CIPHER Preventive Healthcare. Dr. Sushila Narayan, Surgeon, Oncology Department, the only female surgeon in Andhra Pradesh in Oncology created an awareness regarding the basic symptoms which help in early detection of cancer which actually saves life. Ms. Bhuvana Immaculate, Assistant Professor, Department of English was the Master of Ceremony for the program. The same program was conducted for the staff under the staff Welfare committee in the afternoon. Ms. Sherlin Smile, Assistant Professor, Department of English was the Master of Ceremony for the program.

Student Quality Cell SQC

17 January 2014

The Third Student Quality Cell meeting for the academic year 2013-14 was conducted on 17 January 2014. The meeting started with Ms. Sherlin Smile, Assistant Professor, Department of English reading the minutes of the previous meeting. Dr. Deepika Rupert Gardner, Head, Department of English and the Coordinator of SQC gave a short account of the grievances met by the management which were expressed by the students in the previous meeting. She stressed upon the fact that SQC meeting was not conducted to add as an event in the diary of events. It is actually the support system which helps in maintaining quality in the college.

Rev. Fr. Vincent Arokiadas, the Principal, St. Joseph's Degree and PG College addressed the students regarding the forthcoming event, Josephiesta 2014. He appealed the class representatives to motivate their friends to be participative and make it a great event. The meeting was left open to the students to express their suggestions and grievances
