Venue	: Seminar Hall
Coordinator	: Dr Sangeetha M
Resource Person	: Prof .P.L Visweswar Rao
Target Group	:U.G and P.G students of St Joseph's College

About the Activity : The curtain raiser event of the English club JELS was initiated by the V -Bate club which organized a debate competition for second and third year degree students on 1 July 2015. The topic of debate "Indian Reservation system" saw a spirited participation from both the teams who vociferously argued for and against the quota system. The event was well streamlined and regulated as Prof .P.L Visweswar Rao provided guidelines for three rounds ,wherein a scope was created for each person on either sides to air their views, culminating in the final round where the teams entered an open debate. On a note of conclusion the Director as the moderator summed up the arguments on Reserved or Deserved? He recorded appreciation for the students' range of knowledge and opinions on the given topic. Dr. Sangeetha thanked the director for his valuable presence.
