Teachers Day Celebrations 2014

Teachers Day Celebrations at St. Joseph's Degree & PG College on 5 Sept, 2014 was a grand event, with the Chairman, Most Rev. Thumma Bala, gracing the occasion to bless and congratulate the teaching and the non-teaching staff and their families for their dedication and extraordinary contribution towards the successful completion of the NAAC Re-Accreditation process. Bishop's blessing of the St. Joseph's statue, which is going to adorn the college building, marked the holy beginning of the program. The unveiling of St. Joseph's statue on Teachers day has a special significance for teachers as St. Joseph's is an apostle of hard work and dedication. As the vibrant young Principal Rev Fr. Vincent Arokiadas welcomed and cheerfully mingled with the staff and their families, the beautifully lit campus came alive with a high tide of excitement when the elders and children; teaching and non-teaching staff participated in a wide array of games arranged for them over a sumptuous dinner. The staff was acknowledged with Mementos and Certificates of Appreciation, making the event most memorable for all the members of Joseph's family.
