ANNUAL REPORT 2018 - 19

Curriculum Design and Development:

The Department of English, keeping in view the local, regional and global developmental needs has designed and developed a need-based curriculum that aims to groom “global communicators” with relevant knowledge, attitudes, skills, behaviour and values necessary for achieving personal and professional success in today’s global scenario.

In consonance with the college vision of providing “Distinctive environment of educational excellence with humane values and social commitment”, the curriculum offered by the department pays a three-pronged focus on Language development, Soft Skills and Values with a thrust on global Employability.

Exclusive lessons on Soft Skills like Leadership Skills, Emotional intelligence, Change management, Planning, Decision Making, Problem Solving, Critical thinking, Persuasion skills, Anger and Stress Management, interpersonal Skills, Work place Etiquette, Dining, Dressing, Mobile etiquette, Telephonic Skills, etc equip our students with global competencies and the pivotal Life Skills for life-long well-being and success.

Employability skills and career development are prioritised in our curriculum with topics like Resume Writing, Group Discussion, interview skills, Presentation Skills, e-mail drafting, Business correspondence and Report Writing. Topic like Statement of Purpose is included to promote vertical mobility. Leveraging the advantage of Choice-based Credit System, the department has introduced two skill enhancement courses -English for Competitive Exams and Business English to further global employability.

Our Value Addition Courses which include 30 hour Certificate course on Theatre Arts and 40 hour Certificate course based on Cambridge Business English Certification (BEC) provide an added dimension to our curriculum enrichment and enhancement.

FDP ON COMMUNICATION SKILLS -A WORKSHOP FOR PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

It is a rich tradition at Josephs to begin the academic year with faculty enrichment programs to orient the teachers towards adopting effective teaching and learning practices.

The department of English hosted a Workshop on “Effective communication skills for the teachers” conducted by Professor Kishore, ELT Division, EFLU, on 5 June 2018 as part of the Faculty Development Programme for teaching faculty of St. Joseph’s College.

The session began with a special prayer rendered by Mrs. Pauline for the professional development and well being of the teachers which was followed by Prof. P L V ‘s key note address which emphasised on the quality sustenance and quality enhancement in the education system. Then Dr. Sangeetha, HoD, Department of English in her welcome address reiterated the unarguable importance of Teachers being effective communicators for impactful knowledge transaction.

The highly insightful and interactive session which focused primarily on the mechanics of efficient writing skills, imparted techniques to master the nuances of cohesive writing viz., usage of linkers, modifiers, paragraph writing etc. The half a day workshop also dealt with email etiquette, soft skills, vocabulary for professional communication, etc., thus giving a comprehensive overview of the three vital skills—Reading, Writing and Spoken English in the context of professional communication and etiquette.

The session concluded with the resource person sharing information about e- resources for continuous learning. The Vote of thanks proposed by Mrs. Prasitha Haridev was accompanied by felicitation of the resource person by Mrs. Esther Ratana, Dean, student affairs. The feedback administered by Ms. Vyoma at the end of the program recorded high praise for the enriching session from the faculty.

ORIENTATION FOR THE SECOND AND THIRD YEAR STUDENTS

The Department of English conducted a two hour orientation programme for the second and third year B.A, B.Sc and B.Com students on 13th and 14th June 2018 to orient them towards a past track programme on English Proficiency for Employability. The Orientation covered topics on basics like Letter Writing and also topics like Resume Writing for Career Building.

INDUCTION PROGRAMME FOR BA JPE STUDENTS

The Department of English in collaboration with MASS COMMUNICATION AND JOURNALISM organized an induction session for the fresh batch of BA JPE students on 20 June 2018 for acclimatizing them with the campus, culture and its academic climate.

The session opened on an auspicious note with a prayer song rendered by the college choir, ANNO DOMINI. Father SVD Kingston, HoD, Department of Mass Communication briefed the students about what they can expect from the department and what the department expects from the students. He also outlined the rules to be followed to sustain the discipline on the campus. Dr. Sangeetha HOD, Dept of English addressed the students on need for blending their innate creativity with stringent self discipline and commitment to court success like that of Bahubali. The Students were shown an inspirational video on Goal Setting followed by an activity wherein the students were asked to quote their desired future monthly income and also allocate a budget of income and expenditure and savings against that income.

The Principal Rev Father Vincent Arokiadas in his motivational address, addressed the students on the importance of being strategic and focused, while being dynamic and outgoing.

He congratulated the students, for their creative temperament and expressed his pride at the increasing number of students showing an inclination to Humanities and Social Sciences.

Professor P.L. Vishweshwar Rao, Director, St. Josephs Degree and PG College familiarized the students with the norms of the college and enlisted the skills required to stand out in the field of Journalism. He ended his note with one of his mottos in life, "SMARTWORK AND NETWORK LEADS TO SUCCESS."

Controller of Examinations, Mr. B Satyanarayana Rao gave an insight into the examination system of the college.

The senior students shared their memories over the years with words of wisdom on how to have an enriching campus life with healthy relationships.

The concluding note was struck by Dr. Sangeetha hosting an ice breaking session which included fun filled team building games that gave a scope for social interaction among the fresh entrants.

ST JOSEPH'S JOINS HANDS WITH TELANGANA POLICE FOR THE CYBER SAFETY CAMPAIGN

St. Joseph's Degree and Pg College in collaboration with Telangana Cyber Police conducted a Cyber Safety Campaign at Delhi Public School on 5 June 2018 to mark International Social Media Day.

The students of St. Josephs found a new purpose to celebrate the Social Media day by spreading cyber safety awareness through a street play which dwelt on the many aspects of social media abuse and cyber crime, to voice out a valuable message on how to stay happy and safe on social media.

Josephites from the college drama club "Spot Light" performed a street play that alerted the middle and high school students of Delhi Public school on the manifold forms of Cyber crime that they can fall prey to. The skit dramatized online fraudulent business dealings to other dreadful experiences like Facebook friendships with strangers that pose a serious threat on Facebook, Twitter and other cyber domains. The thought provoking campaign also included a quiz on cyber crime awareness.

The campaign also included cyber awareness talk by Telangana Cyber Police officers and Dr. Sangeetha, the Program coordinator, who reinforced the need and strategies for cyber safety. The program concluded with the Principal of DPS thanking Cyber Police and St. Joseph's for their commendable efforts in creating awareness of the most emerging concern of the contemporary society.

The Assistant Commissioner of Police, Sri Chakravarthy, initiated the campaign by sending posters and pamphlets with precautionary measures to be followed for Social media safety, which included a few pointers, viz., -use of Privacy Settings, changing the password, not sharing personal information to strangers etc. Added to this vital information, The Cyber Police shared with the students and general public their help line numbers on FB, Twitter, and Whatsapp for them to reach out in times of need.

The campaign was formally flagged off by the college Principal Rev. Fr. Vincent Arokiadas who wished students a happy and safe social media experience. Dr. Sangeetha, HoD, Department of English spoke on how cyber safety is an emerging concern in modern times where increasing number of youth and women are falling victims of cyber crime as social media has become a necessary evil which cannot be wished away.

Mr. Raghuvier, ACP, Telangana cyber police congratulated the students on being the agents of social change and reinforced the crucial importance of making cyber safety awareness an integral part of public education

ENTRY LEVEL LSRW ASSESSMENT TESTS:

ENTRY LEVEL DIAGNOSTIC TESTS were conducted for the fresh batch of UG students to assess their English Proficiency between 16-07-2018 to 20-07-2018. The LSRW assessment helped the department to assess the language proficiency of the students in all the key four key areas viz., Listening, Reading, Speaking and Writing in order to customize the remedial measures. The broad spectrum of tests included personal introduction round, wherein a scope was created to gauge the communication skills and the confidence levels of the student. The test used LSRW testing methods commonly used in competitive exams like IELTS, BEC (Cambridge).

National integration week

The Department of English and Languages heralded the patriotic fervour through hosting a bouquet of event that celebrated the rich Indian Legacy and proud National Identity of Josephites. As a forerunner of seventy second Independence Day, the campus was enthused with a National Spirit with the National Spirit, as a gamut of competitions and events themed around 'India' unfolded. The Quiz on "The India I Know" challenged the students on their Knowledge of Indian History, Economic, Bollywood, Geography, Music etc.... .

Likewise the Painting Competition was titled "India Through My Eyes" and the creative writing Competition invited participation from poets to caption writers who wrote on the Collage themed 'India'.

Photography contest was the major highlight as it attracted forty nine brilliant pictures on images drawn from Indian Life.

The other unique competitions included Letter to the P.M or C.M, writing to them about suggestion to make their Green Initiatives effect. Last but not the least the declamation speech had students deliver powerful speeches of National Leaders.

The week long competitions which commenced from 2 August culminated in a Grand Traditional Day, where the campus was vibrant with Ethnic Colours and Costumes the Best Dressed award was given to the student who used the tricolours of the National Flag to dress innovatively.

The National Integration Week celebrations touched a crescendo with the Drama Club performing a Mime on the theme of National Integration.

The inaugural session started at 10 am. It was presided by the Principal, Rev. Fr. Dr. Vincent Arokiadas. The British Deputy High Commissioner, Mr. Andrew Fleming was the Chief Guest. Mr Flemming spoke at length about how Literature enriches life and the thought process of man.

Prof. Satyanarayana, the Vice-Chancellor of Potti Sreeramulu Telugu University, was the Guest of Honour. He delivered an inspiring speech on the degeneration of human values and the need for Literature to redeem its lost values. The keynote address was delivered by Prof. T. Vijay Kumar, Head of the department of English, Arts College, Osmania University. He observed that there was an urgent need for Language to reform itself in order to reform society. The dignitaries were felicitated with mementos. The highlight of the conference was the release of conference proceedings (CD) in the UGC referred E journal with ISSN number. The plenary session was followed by Paper Presentations in 6 languages, namely, English, Arabic, French, Sanskrit, Telugu and Hindi on the theme of the conference.

The Technical session for English was presented in two tracks, which included Language in Media studies. Track 1 which had 18 paper presenters was chaired by Prof Muralikrishna and track 2 which had 15 presenters had Prof P.L. Vishweshwar Rao and Prof. E. Nageswara Rao as Chairpersons. The topics ranged from Literature and values in areas of didactic poetry, children's literature, and pragmatic studies to media studies.

The Technical session dedicated to Indian Languages i.e. Hindi, Sanskrit and Telugu had 9, 4 and 2 papers, respectively. The session was chaired by Dr Muktha Vani. The topics ranged from politics, environmental concerns and acquisition of second languages to imbibing moral and ethical values through language.

The technical session for Arabic was chaired by Prof. Mohammed Mustafa Shareef. The most remarkable aspect of this session was that all papers were presented in Arabic. Most topics revolved around the Holy Quran that deals with humanity and Universal Brotherhood.

The technical session for French chaired by Prof. Ravi Eashwarchand, had 7 paper presenters with topics on the importance of Language, Social and Cultural values and Employability skills.

The conference saw papers which added to the notion of literature and language as a powerful instrument of social reformation. They focused on how literature can connect, guide and reform society and help in the betterment of society.

The participation in the One day National Conference was robust with 80 full scholarly papers centered on the Conference theme. This was followed by lunch and the valedictory session. The Valedictory function had Prof. Mohan Singh, former Dean and Principal Arts College OU as the Chief Guest who addressed the gathering on the significance of reading good books, particularly biographies for the holistic development of individual and society. The conference received encouraging feedback and appreciation from the resource persons and the participants.

The conference also saw papers which added to the notion of literature and language as a powerful instrument of social reformation.

The conference marked a milestone in Academic Research on contemporary issues as 82 quality research papers submitted as part of the conference were published with the ISSN number(2236-6124) in the UGC approved Journal titled “ The International Journal of Research”.
