The first National Commerce Fest "COMMERA 2K19" which is a landmark in the history of St. Josephs Degree & PG College was organized by ACE - Association of Commerce Enthusiasts of Department of Commerce in collaboration with International Skill Development Corporation (ISDC) for two days on 20th and 21st September 2019. The Theme "Come, Compete and Conquer" is befitting as the fest provides an opportunity for students to participate and exhibit their talents in various events curated to challenge the participants and test their knowledge in the field of Commerce. The objective of the fest was to bring in the best minds to devise creative, innovative and rational thinking by providing a platform to showcase their talents to become curious learners and enable them to keep pace in this competitive world.

♣ INAUGURAL SESSION

The Inaugural session of COMMERA 2K19 commenced at 10.00 am in Jubilee Hall. The Dignitaries were Prof. Prashanta Athma, Head, Department of Commerce, Osmania University, Chief Guest; Ms.Teresa Jacobs, Director, Learning & Development, International Skill Development Corporation (ISDC), Guest of Honour; Rev.Fr.K.Marreddy, Principal, Prof.P.L.Vishweshwara Rao, Director and Dr.Mrs. N. Srilatha, Head, Department of Commerce. The inaugural session began by invoking God's blessings with prayer by college choir "Anna Domini". The Dignitaries were welcomed and invited on to the dais for lighting of the lamp by the host of the session Mohammed Wajihuddin from B.Com IFA final year.

Dr.Mrs. N. Srilatha in her welcome address underlined the objective of organizing the first National Commerce Fest. She said that the fest will elevate confidence and enhance the innovative and managerial skills of students and also teaches them how to work in a team by applying theoretical concepts in various real life situations and this eventually develops a sense of responsibility in them.

Rev.Fr.K.Marreddy, Principal in his Presidential address congratulated Department of Commerce for its consistent growth since its inception and said that it is a great initiative by the department to organize the first National Commerce Fest. He said that the fest is a platform to discover student's hidden talents and help foster creativity and innovation. Students will be equipped with competence, creativity and analytical skills to face global challenges and thereby bring name to self and College.

Maria Anoushka Pillay from B.Com final year Generals introduced Ms.Teresa Jacobs, Guest of Honour to the gathering. She shared her happiness to be part of the fest and thanked Department of Commerce for inviting her. She advised the students to have plan in life and to avail all the opportunities that come on their way. She ignited the young minds by mentioning that students need to be job creators and not job seekers. She urged them not to be afraid of situations and to stand up for yourself in life and aspire to be somebody else.

Faizan Ali Khan from B.Com IFA final year introduced Prof. Prashanta Athma, Chief Guest to the gathering. She congratulated Department of Commerce for organizing the first National Commerce Fest. She said that demand for Commerce is evergreen and Faculty of Commerce, Osmania University introduced practical courses comprising of internships and projects to suit the requirements of industry. She mentioned that COMMERA 2K19 is a platform to showcase the talents of students and advised them to interact and learn from others. She highlighted the relevance of all the 8 competitions by mentioning that (1) Business Bonanza enhances the zeal to succeed when you make your sales of products go mighty and high (2). Quiz Dom which is a culmination of quiz with wisdom inculcates the habit of reading (3). Mock Court Trial helps in depth analysis of cases (4). Market Kshetra develops your marketing strategies (5). Devil Follows challenges your wits and puts your skills to test (6). Wall Street enables to know the right time to invest and sell shares (7) Ad zap exhibits your creativity and improves communication skills by making your ad more innovative (8). Treasure Hunt develops team spirit. She said that mind is like a parachute and it works well when it is open and urged the students to have zeal, patience, confidence and perseverance to participate and win. She informed the students to accept success or failure gracefully. She mentioned that life is God's gift and what we are is our gift to God. She said that the theme of the fest was very apt and concluded with a statement "Give your best and best will be yours".

Prof.P.L.Vishweshwara Rao in his address informed the students that branding plays a key role in today's competitive world and understanding market trends is vital. He said that the fest encourages students not only to learn to manage things on their own but also supplement their professional development in understanding the subjects with better clarity. The inaugural session concluded with vote of thanks proposed by Miss.N.Sai Lakshmi, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce followed by felicitation of the dignitaries by our beloved Principal.

♣ VALEDICTORY CEREMONY

The Valedictory Ceremony of "COMMERA 2K19" commenced at 5.00 pm in Jubilee Hall. The Dignitaries were Prof.V.Appa Rao, Dean, Department of Commerce, Osmania University, Chief Guest; Mr. Pramod Kedia, Chairman, Agrasen Bank, Hyderabad, Guest of Honour; Rev.Fr.K.Marreddy, Principal; Rev.Fr. Thumma Uday Bhaskar Reddy, Dean Academics, Prof.P.L.Vishweshwara Rao, Director and Dr.Mrs.N.Srilatha, Head, Department of Commerce. The host of the session Akansha Venkatraman from B.Com final year Honors welcomed the guests and students to the ceremony. It began with a prayer song by college choir "Anna Domini". Mrs.Sarika Verma, Convenor of Commerce Fest presented the rappoteur's report. Rev.Fr.K.Marreddy, Principal congratulated Department of Commerce for successfully organizing the fest and also all the students who participated in the fest.

Farwa Basith from B.Com II year Professionals introduced Mr. Pramod Kedia, Guest of Honour to the gathering. He shared his happiness to be part of National Commerce Fest and thanked the College for inviting him. He said St.Josephs Degree & PG College has a brand name and students must feel proud to be part of this prestigious institution. He said that events like commerce fest will improve dedication, discipline and leadership qualities among students. He informed the students to aim high and have confidence in whatever field they pursue whether medicine, legal profession, Corporate jobs, Engineering or startups. He urged the students to be optimistic and not to be pessimistic in life. He advised the students to become job creators rather than job seekers and to have own bank account and also develop the habit of savings. He concluded by mentioning that the future of every nation depends on their students. It is the duty of every student to acquire fine qualities of life such as obedience, dutifulness, diligence, respect to elders, honesty, patriotism, etc. which will enable him/ her to stand in good stead in the future. Students must also have a great responsibility to help out the less fortunate members of the society by way of social work.

Prize distribution ceremony was hosted by Mrs.Ritika Waghray, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce. Winners of various competitions were awarded with cash awards, mementos and certificates by the Dignitaries. The winners were also awarded with Digital Certificates and all the participants were given participation certificates. Christ College (Deemed to be University), Bengaluru won over all championship award and St.Josephs Degree & PG College, Hyderabad was awarded for maximum participation. The guests were felicitated with mementos by our beloved Principal followed by vote of thanks proposed by Miss.N. Sai Lakshmi, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce. The ceremony came to an end with singing of National Anthem. The fest witnessed participation of around 350 students from 16 colleges. COMMERA 2K19 was a grand success and obtained rave reviews from the Dignitaries and the participants.

♣ BHOJ-E-JASHN (FOOD FEST)

Entrepreneurship Development Cell of St.Josephs Degree & PG College organized "Bhoj-e-Jashn – Food Fest" on 20th September 2019 with an aim to groom entrepreneurial and leadership skills of students and give them an exposure to display their creativity and passion. Students will learn to coordinate, manage, interact and work together as a team aimed at achieving a common objective. The Food Fest was inaugurated by Rev.Fr.K.Marreddy, Principal at 11.45 am in the college premises. An awesome ambience was created in the campus as it was beautifully decorated with colourful ribbons, balloons, posters and banners

There was an overwhelming response from 52 students as they put up 2 game stalls and 22 food stalls with 35 mouth watering delicacies namely Dahi wada, Ice cream, Potato cheese Nuggets, Fried Rice, Grilled Sandwich, Veg machuria, Pastries, Cup cakes, Pav bhaji, Sweets, Arabian Kabab, Bhel puri, Sev Puri, Bread Pakoda, French fries, Pizza, Varieties of Chat, Ras kachori, Maggie, Chilly cheese toast, Padi, Fruit blast, Choco pops, Spicy Korean ramen, Cool drinks, Pans etc. Food outlets with a variety of mouthwatering delicious dishes tempted and attracted each and everyone alike. Participants were judged under different categories such as (a). Best Taste (b). Best Marketing Strategy (c). Highest Profit.

The food fest gave an opportunity to young brains to showcase their innovative ideas, marketing strategies and compete with their peers and assess their understanding of the practicalities of business market. It is a great platform that can let them display and sell their products, talk to potential customers, collaborators and even competitors, and experience what it's like to run a physical business by being an entrepreneur for a day. Rev.Fr. K.Marreddy, Principal lauded the efforts of students for their active participation and commendable presentation. Students did an amazing job right from planning to execution. The highlight of this year's food fest was a musical show by College Choir "Anna Domini" where singers entertained the crowd with foot tapping songs along with dances. The fest was an amalgamation of fun and learning where spectacular ideas were displayed and students learnt and felt inspired. It was a perfectly enthralling assemblage of food, fun and entertainment.
