The Tree Plantation Day was celebrated by the NSS volunteers of St. Joseph's Degree and PG College on 22nd December 2015 in the college campus. The students actively participated in the tree plantation by planting trees within the college campus. The event was conducted after the college hours under the supervision of NSS Public Officer, Aparna Rajhans, who has also actively participated in the event and was also accompanied by the non-teaching staff.

Outcome - The volunteers created awareness among the students to plant more trees in and around. This helped the volunteers to identify the needs and problems of the community and extend a helping hand and developed among them a sense of social and civil responsibility.
