

COMPUTER LITERACY DAY

2018-19

Report on Computer Literacy Day

The Department of computer Science celebrated computer literacy day on 4th December 2018 which intended to encourage the development of technical skills and create awareness among the students. The Department organized a Guest lecture for all B.Sc. Students to create awareness on project management in IT industry. The Resource person was Mr. P Sridhar, IT program Manager, BECON Lab Benefits Sol., USA., covered project guidance, roles and responsibilities in a project and project management skills. Emphasis was on sprint meetings, daily huddles and on Agile and scrum methodology. Interactive poster presentation and Seminars for all the students of B. Com and B.Sc. was organized to help Students know the history and latest development in computer

Computer literacy day lecture on 4th December 2018

Outcome: To help students know the history and latest development in computer.