

WEC & The Department of English

St. Joseph's Degree and PG College

Organizes

Poetry Recitation as a part of 16-day activism to Eliminate Violence Against Girls and Women

Name of the activity: Poetry Recitation

Date: 29th December 2020

Targeted Audience: All students

No of Participants: 30

Venue: Google Meet

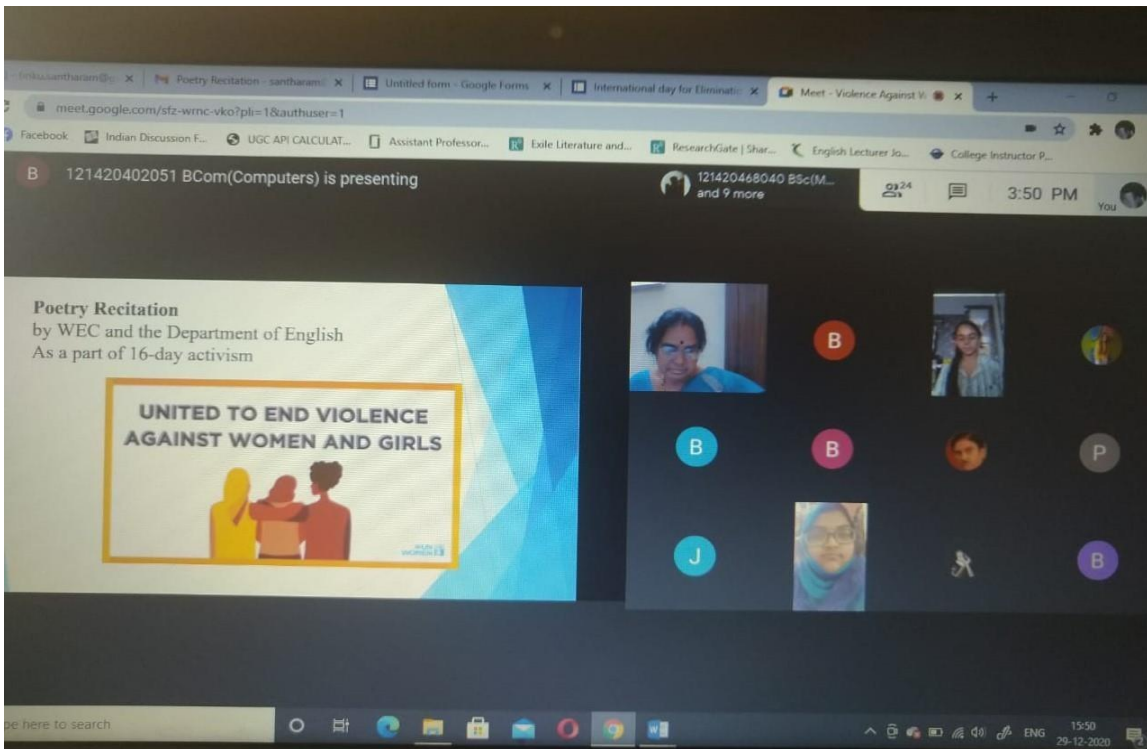

Objective: The main agenda of this activity is make students to rise their voice against violence against women and make students aware of how violence against women has increased during this pandemic.

Report: This is an initiation to create awareness and to make our students to rise their voice to eliminate violence against girls and women from domestic places to public spaces. Students have come up with their own poems and recited to express their melodies. Mrs. Padmasri, the Head of Second Languages department was the judge for the event. Student coordinators were Sravi Ramwani and Bhumika from B. Com 1C, Jyostna Sree and Pranathi from B.Sc. MECS-1A.

Outcome: Students participated actively and recited their melodies and tried to create awareness to eliminate violence against girls and women.

Activity link:

1. Introduction of the event:
<https://drive.google.com/file/d/16uNmgyLEkjVJZbc2SXxRSkZfQZFN2ayr/view>
2. Poetry Recitation:
<https://mail.google.com/mail/u/1/#inbox/FMfcgwxKkHdvhSNnzqshRjmNBtBLRBrT?projector=1>

During the event on 29th December 2020

Towards the end of session

Your comment on the event

10 responses

poet recitation was cool

It was good!

Good

It's nice

It was an eye-opener! Happy to be a part of it.

It was a motivational and inspiring event.

it was a great experience to participate and exchange thoughts

It was a v nice experience

It was a very nice one. Thank you for the opportunity.

Students' feedback