Title – Self Awareness Activity to Promote Empathy

Date – 11th February 2022

Venue – G8 (Ground Floor)

Time – 01:30 – 03:00pm

Objective –

The main objective of this event was to promote empathy among students and explain them the need to be kind to everyone.

Report –

The event began with introduction of the counselor, Mrs. Zatul Nataqeen, Department of Psychology and Counseling Cell, who spoke about what empathy is. Then a self-awareness activity called as “Life Map” began, where the counselor began with explaining the events that happen in everyone’s life and that everyone goes through events that mold them to individuals that they are.

The counselor then encouraged the students to encourage the students to trace the Key Moments of their life, how they coped with it and what they learnt out of it. This was done to make students relate to each other and also trust each other.

They were also encouraged to speak on the times where someone was not kind to them and how it made them feel. This was done to make the students understand the impact of rude or unempathetic behavior on others.

Self-Awareness Activity to Promote Empathy, 11th Feb 2022.

Outcome –

The event gave a lot of information that is currently needed by students of psychology background. Psychology students need to have an understanding and empathetic nature which the students understood and planned to inculcate in their life after this session.

Title: Career in Psychology

Date: 19th April, 2022

Time: 2:30 Onwards

Venue: Joseph's Hall

Event Objective:

The main objective of this event was to familiarize students with the different fields of psychology and what each field has to offer as well as help students clarify the doubts they may hold for within a certain field or fields.

Event Path:

Sanjana Verma, a student of BA(JPE) 2, begins the session by introducing Dr. Swati Agarwal

. Once this is done the guest begins by establishing a relationship between the students and herself by mentioning a common idea that the students hold regarding the subject of psychology.

Ma'am then moves onto the fields themselves that we can look forward to get into and takes us on a journey through all of them describing each one of them with great detail, their potential, requirements and demands.

Once all the students are given the knowledge of different fields, ma'am starts entertaining questions where many-a-great doubts are put onto the table and cleared.

To wrap it all up, Preethi Patel, the president of the Psyched Club concludes the session by thanking Dr. Swati Agarwal for her presence and her knowledge.

Careers in Psychology, 19 - 04 - 2022

Event Outcome:

Dr. Swati Agarwal imparted crucial and indispensable knowledge onto the students, helping them be a little more decisive over their future and provided them with information that is required for each of these fields.

Title: Joseph social responsibility day

Date: 13th May 2022

Time: 9:30 AM onwards

Venue : Free Old age home

Event Objective:

The main object of this outing was to give to the needy and forgotten and spend some time with them.

Report:

A total of 37 students, 9 from jpe 2 and 28 from jpe 1, first assembled in front of St. Antony old age home and gathered all the grocery bought for donation with the total expenditure being - rupees 12,665/-.

once this was done all headed promptly into the establishment but not before providing the items bought in to the establishment's owner, Mr. Vijay.

Once in the students were introduced to the people staying there through the convener of that establishment, after the introductory session students decided to engage into one on one conversation with the people present at the establishment.

The old women were very welcoming to the students and had a jolly time with them, they played a plethora of games such as - Chess, cards, dumb charades, antakshri and much more.

Time flew by and now it was the lunch hour for the people staying there, so with a sad heart - The students bid a farewell and departed feeling a sense of contentedness over their deeds today.

Event Outcome:

The session was one that was very humbling as well as rewarding. The students realized the value of people around them and to treat others with respect and kindness as they may not be aware of one's story and what is happening with them. Upon this the students felt happy doing good for people who need it and left the old age home on a positive note.
