Prof. Patrick

1. There will be no affiliated colleges after 2025 as per NEP
2. It is a challenging job for faculty to teach theory subjects than practical subjects
3. Recruiters will be interested to know the syllabus while offering jobs to students
4. Encourage students to take up MOOC Courses

Prof. K.V.Achalapathi

1. He said titles in Accounts related subjects are not as per Companies Act 2013. He suggested to mention as Income Statement instead of Profit and Loss Account. He also said to use the word Accounts statement instead of Cash Book and E-Statement instead of Passbook. He advised to project proper terminology in the syllabus.
2. Indian Contract Act and Sale of Goods Act are two like two pillars of the subject Business Law and they cannot be separated. Free Consent should be taught in detail and Sale of Goods Act unit should not be removed from Business Law
3. Change the unitisation of the subject Business and Corporate Law. He said to keep present unit 3, 4 and 5 (Company Management, Company Meetings & Resolutions and Winding up of Companies) as unit 1, 2 and 3 respectively. Unit 1(Consumer Protection Act) will become unit 4 and unit 2(IPR & RTI) will become unit 5
4. Accounting for Intangibles is right word instead of valuation of Goodwill
5. In Cost Accounting Subject, unit 1 will be introduction, Cost Sheet and Output Costing should be clubbed which will be unit 2. Materials, Labour and Overheads should be clubbed which will be unit 3. Process Costing will be unit 4 and Contract Costing will be unit 5.
6. Financial Management should be taught first followed by Financial Planning
7. He spoke on Prudential Norms where Solvency and Liquidity are the basis for any companies growth

CA Ahalad Rao

1. Students should be encouraged to take up internships in Banks
2. Students should be taken on Industrial Visits particularly to banks and SBI encourages such visits
3. Upgrade to current trends with regard to cash book and passbook and use the word Sole Proprietorship instead of Sole Trader in syllabus
4. Include Forensic Accounting in Auditing Subject
5. He mentioned that Teaching Law Subjects is a challenging task to the faculty
6. He said Sale of Goods Act unit should not be removed from the Subject Business Law
7. Change the unitisation of the subject Business and Corporate Law. He said to keep present unit 3, 4 and 5 (Company Management, Company Meetings & Resolutions and Winding up of Companies) as unit 1, 2 and 3 respectively. Unit 1(Consumer Protection Act) will become unit 4 and unit 2(IPR & RTI) will become unit 5
8. He gave inputs on unitisation in the subjects Economic Law and Labour Law
9. Remove Internal Construction from the syllabus
10. Include Profit prior to Incorporation in Final Accounts
