National Girl Child Day

The Women Empowerment Cell of St. Joseph's observed National Girl Child Day on Jan 24 in collaboration with Taruni , an NGO which is devoted to the cause of women empowerment.

Objective:

To raise awareness of the critical significance of a Girl Child in the holistic well-being of human societies and development of Nation.

Report:

The day began with the WEC student convenor Ms. Sanjana Varma addressing the students over the PA in the morning assembly, elaborating on the significance of observing National Girl Child Day. She cited shocking statistics of startling rise of female infanticide and declining gender ratio that can spell disaster to the future of human societies. This was followed by a pledge taken by students to protect rights of a girl, support nation's girl children, eliminate gender bias and emphasise the importance of education, health and nutrition.

The other significant events included screening a thought provoking Video on Gender Discrimination and vox populi , wherein WEC core committee members Avani, Mythali, Tanu, Rithika and others went around the campus to gather a cross section of perspectives from students on various gender related issues.

The final segment came in the form of Girls Conclave hosted by Taruni, an NGO at Joseph's Hall. The conclave in true spirit upheld the motto of National Girl child Day as it showcased the talent of rural girls, who gave performances celebrating the theme of the day.
