Dear Father,

Please accept our sincere gratitude for the welcome and support offered to us and our Elderly Residents on November 22, 2022. We are so grateful Father, for this chance you give us to seek help from your/Staff and Students. As in previous years (before Covid) the response has been just wonderful. We are also so grateful for the chance you gave our Elderly to showcase their craft work at your Fete de Noel.

You will be happy to know that the amount collected from your Staff and Students on November 22, 2022 was Rs. 46929/-. And the amount from the sale of craft work at the Fete de Noel was Rs. 7130/-. Our Elderly were delighted to meet your students and see their handiwork being sold. Thank you for this wonderful chance, Father. Please be assured of our prayer for the challenging task you face each and every day. Being the Principal must demand a special energy and commitment, and so, we support you, "from afar" dear Father. Blessed and happy Christmas and New Year 2023.

Minutes of the Internal Quality Assurance Meeting

Date: April 11, 2022.

Venue: Conference Hall

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell of St. Joseph's Degree and PG College held its annual meeting for the Academic year 2021-22 with the external members, on 11 April at the conference hall, to review its Academic and administrative processes for the quality enhancement and sustenance.

#. The IQAC meeting began on an auspicious note as the Prayer by Dean Academics, Rev. Fr. Uday Bhaskar Reddy, invoked the God's blessings to prevail upon the IQAC members to steer the college towards Quality enhancement and sustenance.

This was followed by Welcome address by Principal Rev.Fr.Dr. Sunder Reddy, who accorded a warm welcome to all the members, after a formal introduction of the members. He stated that the objectives of the IQAC Meet focus on the review and renewal of the institutional quality initiatives, in order to take St. Joseph's on the stellar path of holistic excellence; and thus the meeting was declared open for intellectual interactions and deliberations to achieve the same.

The agenda for the meeting presented by the principal was unanimously approved by the members.

Dr. Danam Tressa, the IQAC coordinator, once again welcomed the members, followed by a Presentation which gave an overview of the IQAC initiatives/ activities conducted from 2020- 2021 till date.

The IQAC Coordinator presented the minutes of the previous IQAC Meeting which were unanimously passed by the Members. She also highlighted the contributions of IQAC, by depicting the Action Taken Report against the recommendations of the previous IQAC meeting conducted.

This was followed by Mrs.Esther Ratna, Faculty representative, presenting Annual Quality Assurance Report, covering a spectrum of institutional best practices and quality initiatives in the domains of seven criteria, namely Curriculum design and development, Teaching learning and evaluation, Research and consultancy, Infrastructure, Student Support, Governance and institutional distinctiveness.

Professor Srinivas, IQAC Coordinator, OU, applauded the institutional endeavours in establishing exemplary standards of excellence in education, and strongly recommended that the college should go for NAAC Reaccreditation to improve the grades. He also assured that the IQAC Cell, OU, is forthcoming in supporting and contributing towards academic enrichment and quality enhancement of the institution.

Professor Srinivas also posed questions on the approach adopted by the institution towards program designing. In response, Dr. Sangeetha and Mrs Esther Ratna, faculty representatives, highlighted the holistic framework of Outcome-based program designing, which incorporates value addition components on environmental ethics. Professor Srinivas advised that a conducive Research culture in the college can be promoted through giving incentives to faculty pursuing research, and also educating the faculty about premier journals, impact factor, citations, etc.

Mr. Parthasarathy, emphasised the critical need to inculcate positive attitude and life skills among students, so that they excel in their workplace and achieve lifelong success.

#Mr. Parthasarathy reiterated the importance of keeping track of the Alumni by maintaining a good Alumni database and maintaining proactive Alumni relations with institutional websites and regular alumni meets

Mr. Akbar, the Alumni representative, expressed his gratitude to the mentors at the college, for giving him the right opportunities to hone his interpersonal skills and knowledge. He also cited that he has been renewing his relationship with the alma mater through conducting pre-placement sessions for the students.

Professor Srinivas advised that a conducive Research culture in the college can be promoted through giving incentives to the faculty pursuing research and also educating the faculty about Premier Journal's impact, factor, Citations etc.

#Professor Srinivas also emphasised the need for collaborations and consultancy.

#Professor Srinivas reiterated the importance of doing SWOT analysis of the institution. He also underscored the importance of practical exposure for students.

Professor Srinivas stated that professional development programs should be taken up to guide the institution on OBE, NEP and also train the students for civil services and other competitive exams.

Ms. Anne, Parent Representative, expressed the opinion that post-Covid, the College should once again resume students' extension activities and also emphasised that the parents should be communicated about the college and its activities on a regular basis.

Mr Akbar, the Alumni representative, also emphasised the need for students to have a "Well-being day" holiday amidst hectic academic schedules in order to rejuvenate them.

Professor Srinivas and Mr. Parthasarathy in unison, recommended that college should henceforth have a "Crazy day" where students are given complete freedom and Liberty to freely express their individual ideas and thoughts.

The meeting came to a close with Vote of Thanks proposed by Dr.Geethanjali, Additional Coordinator, IQAC , to express profuse thanks to each and every member for their proactive contribution towards the quality sustenance and enrichment of the institution.
