Entry Level Test/ Diagnostic Test/ Bridge Course - Mapping diverse needs

Soon after admission to the UG Course, students from all streams were administered Entry Level Test (ELST) on 13 - 18 July ,2023 to test their LSRW skills. The formal entry level was followed by a series of diagnostic test during first ten days of instructions in their respective classes. The diagnostic test include self-introduction, listening test, JAM, language quiz, grammar worksheets, creative writing exercises, group discussion on current topics etc.. which enabled the teacher to map the diverse literary interest capabilities, confidence levels etc of the students. There by Advance and Slow Learners were identified and differentiated teaching strategies accordingly were adopted to address the diverse student needs.

Bridge Course

Bridge Course was conducted (05 days 20,21,26, 27, 28 in the month of July B.Com and B.B.A) and (05 days 1,2,4,5,6 in the month of September) on beyond the class hours for students who have extremely low scores in ELST. The bridge course is a foundation course in basic grammar and common errors to bring them on par with others .

Methodology :

Chalk and talk/Online Classes /worksheets/drilling for teaching basic of grammar

1. Activity based teaching/ Role play/ JAM etc
2. Error Analysis and level appropriate beginners reading list, elementary workbooks 3.
- Take home online practice worksheets

Kargil Vijay Divas Marks Patriotic Fervor

Objective

To instill a sense of national pride and evoke admiration and gratitude among the students for the martyrs of the Kargil war.

The Report

The Department of English, St. Joseph's Degree and PG College, hosted a motivational session on 'Mera Bharat Mahan' on 26 th July, 2023 by LT. CoR. Bijay Nair, Indian Navy Veteran, to commemorate the valour of Indian Army on the occasion of 25 th year of Kargil Vijay Divas. LT. Nair addressed about 200 UG students from various streams on Google platform, wherein he shared his inspirational personal story of initial failures, perseverance and progress to being part of the great Kargil victory. The compelling narration also reconstructed the highlights of Operation Vijay to pay homage to the great valour and sacrifice of the martyrs.

The session also imparted awareness to the youth about constitutional values and their fundamental duties as young citizens to build a great future for themselves and for the country. The session was convened by Dr. Sangeetha Motkar, HoD, Department of English and supported by faculty coordinator Ms. Vyoma and student coordinators Amogh Vardarajan and Niladri Saha.

Outcome/ Impact

Over 200 students were inspired to pay homage to the Kargil soldiers and also serve the nation with a deep sense of awareness about constitutional values and their fundamental duties.
