The Department strives for balanced, objective and ethical Journalism creating qualified & responsible media professionals.

ABOUT ICSSR-SRC

Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) Southern Regional Centre was established on 1st February 1973 at the Osmania University Campus in collaboration with the Osmania University and the Government of Andhra Pradesh. Its objective was to assist the Council in the organization of its programmes within the Southern Region and to develop documentation and bibliographical services in some of the South Indian languages. The main aims of the Southern Regional Centre are to collect and stock social science research material in Telugu and Urdu in addition to English and maintain the necessary equipment for its use. ICSSR –SRC strives to represent the ICSSR within the Region and to work for extension of its programme to social scientists in the region bringing social scientists of the region closer for promotion of social science research. ICSSR –SRC serves as a link between the social scientists of the region and national and international communities of the social scientists.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

The two-day National Seminar is an intellectual gathering to address the forward-looking vision for India's national education policy in alignment with ICCSR's vision for innovation and research in higher education. We aim to inspire our attendees to understand the intricacies of the policy and develop a holistic education system involving the teachers and students.

OBJECTIVES

The Seminar will offer a wide platform for stakeholders to share their views, perspectives on the issues and challenges in implementation of NEP. The Objective of the seminar is to identify students and faculties study needs for effective implementation of NEP-2020. The Seminar will focus on the Education criteria for implementation of NEP in Higher Education, selection of Interdisciplinary courses by students, reflection of national higher education qualification's framework, assessment & accreditation as a reality to higher education and National institutional ranking framework.
